

How to cite sources

Videos

Don McMillan, Life after Death by Powerpoint, <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=KbSPPFYxx3o>; retrieved: 21.03.2021.

Websites

Voice of America (2019), How to Express Your Opinion in English, <https://learningenglish.voanews.com/a/how-to-express-your-opinions-in-english/4755937.html>; retrieved: 31.03.2021.

Books

Trapp, Robert et al. (2005), Discovering the World through Debate, New York: IDEA Press Book; retrieved 28.03.2021.

Articles

- On the internet: Ackermann, Evan (2016), A Cyborg Stingray Made of Rat Muscles and Gold, IEEE Spectrum; retrieved: 26.10.2021.
- In a magazine: Minow, Martha (2021), Equality vs. Equity, in: American Journal of Law and Equality (2021) 1, 167–193; retrieved: 28.03.2021.

Pictures/Images

- When you are supposed to use a picture from a website, they will tell you how to give the source. If not, provide the website link where it came from; retrieved: 31.03.2021.
- Refer to our Moodle course or Semester plan to see how to cite AI generated images.