

ICT Systems

1 Vocabulary

1.1 Match the terms with their definitions.

- a) umbrella term
- b) to facilitate
- c) comprehensive
- d) a slew of
- 1) a large amount of
- 2) complete/including everything that is necessary
- 3) covering a broad number of functions or items all belonging to a single common category
- 4) to make something possible or easier

2 What is ICT?

2.1 Watch the clip What is ICT \(Information and Communications Technology\)? and answer the following questions.

1 Explain what ICT stands for.

- information communications technology

2 Explain what is included in ICT and list its components.

- everything digital and hardware able to access the internet or connect with each other
- data, software, transactions, ...

3 Discuss in which ways ICT has affected our lives.

- easier communication
-

4 Comment on the advantages and disadvantages of ICT.

- | | |
|---|--|
| <ul style="list-style-type: none"> + more jobs facilitates everyday life | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - new levels of crime too much information |
|---|--|

Sprachenzentrum

3 Vocabulary

3.1 In groups, collect words that are associated with ICT.

technical devices (+hardware)
network internet
programs/applications
data/information

4 Practical Applications

4.1 In groups choose one every day item, research the ICT behind it and present it to class.

printer --> connection to network > other devices => ict

5 Types of ICT Systems

There are two types: embedded systems and general-purpose systems.

5.1 Read this text on embedded systems and take notes.

5.2 Read this text on general-purpose systems and take notes.

6 Functions of ICT Systems

6.1 Read this text to find out more about the types of functions of ICT systems.

7 Components of ICT Systems

7.1 Watch the clip Components of Computer System and complete the following diagram.

